

EXHIBIT 22

Monday, July 1 1996 Safar 15 1417H -- Safar 22 1417H

Muslim World League deplores heinous crime

Car blast evokes world outrage stress of its people and want of its resources," stated an official source at the Ministry of Defense. "A total of 19 Americans in the U.S. The source said the wounded included 12 Americans, 11 Saudis, two Jordanians, two Syrians and two Filipinos.

The ministry announced SR 10 million reward for anyone who gives information leading to the arrest of the perpetrators or those involved in last night's bombing. The ministry urged citizens and residents to cooperate with the security forces to arrest the per-

The residential building destroyed by the powerful truck bomb in Alkhobar on Tuesday.

Officiales said the chassis contained a serial number that could help track down the truck's origin, and officials said they had received a "good description" of the two men who parked the truck outside the housing compound. They have also identified the getaway car of the two men as a white Chevrolet Caprice.

The U.S. Air Force said 2,340 Americans are stationed at Dhahran, including pilots who help enforce the no-fly zone over southern Iraq.

In Makkah, Secretary General of the Muslim World League Dr. Abdullah Al-Obeid denounced the heinous crime and expressed his deep sorrow over the tragic incident, which resulted in killing several people, destroying property and pinching peaceful people.

"This tragic incident is one of the criminal acts which aim at destabilizing the Gulf region and this safe and secure country which has the honor of serving the two holy mosques and spreading the message of Islam worldwide.

Dr. Obeid prayed to Almighty Allah to protect the security and stability of Saudi Arabia under the able leadership of King Fahd. He also hoped that the efforts of security organs would succeed in arresting the bombers.

In New York, the U.N. Security Council condemned the Alkhobar bombing as a terrorist act. The 15 council members "re-emphasized their strong condemnation of all acts of terror and consider them alien to the moral and spiritual values shared by all the peoples of the world," council President Nabil Elaraby of Egypt told reporters.

Arab foreign and information ministers meeting in Cairo also condemned the attack. Saudi Information Minister Dr. Fuad Al-Farsi called for joint efforts to combat terrorism, which is alien to Arab and Islamic societies. The Arab League and the Organization of Islamic Conference also deplored the "cowardly" bomb attack.

"We strongly denounce this act of cowardly terrorism which goes against all our Arab and Islamic traditions and which cost the lives of innocent people," Arab League Secretary-General Dr. Esmat Abdul Meguid said.

Fahd says without Jerusalem

JEDDAH -- Custodian of the Kaaba King Fahd on Monday called for peace talks on all principles approved at the Madrid conference.

Addressing the Council of Al-Salam Palace here, King Fahd said just peace in the Middle East without solving the Jerusalem problem of Palestinian refugees.

He said the land-for-peace plan, which withdrawal from a Jerusalem, Golani Height, and the West Bank, should be implemented. "The Palestinians should have their independent state, halt of Israeli settlements in occupied Palestinian territories and the removal of existing alterations in Jerusalem's legal status."

King Fahd welcomed the summit, which was convened to emphasize the need for achieving a just and comprehensive peace.

The cabinet was briefed on the outcome of the summit, who led the Kingdom's delegation to the conference. The cabinet also briefed the ministers on the sidelines of the conference.

Information Minister Dr. Idris Al-Qudsi, who praised Prince Abdullah's interests of the Arab nation, affirmed the Arab states' commitment to the peace process. "It's a strategic goal and King Fahd also called for the Dayton Accord in Bosnia and Herzegovina."

IIRO thanks Sultan for support

The Jeddah-based International Islamic Relief Organization (IIRO) has received a check for SR 500,000 from Prince Sultan, second deputy premier and minister of defense and aviation. The amount represents first installment of an SR 1 million annual donation pledged by Prince Sultan to the IIRO, the Islamic world's largest relief organization.

Prince Sultan's donation comes as per the directives of Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques King Fahd and Crown Prince Abdullah to incorporate IIRO into a full-fledged relief agency to become one of the largest 10 international relief organizations.

Its activities included sponsoring of orphans, building and running of medical and educational institutions, Quran schools and vocational training centers. IIRO serves refugees, victims of wars and calamities, orphans, widows and the poor.

Pareed Qurashi, IIRO's secretary-general, thanked Prince Sultan for the donation and his continuous support to the organization.

The IIRO, which was established in 1978, has grown

It also provides education to more than 580,000 poor Muslim students in different countries, the statement said. A non-profit independent organization, IIRO's activities cover about 100 countries. More than four million people benefited from IIRO's health services last year, it said.

IIRO has implemented 279 health projects including 18 hospitals, 161 clinics, 12 pharmacies and six nutrition centers in 45 countries.

It also supported the setting up of 90 medical laboratories, which was the first relief organization to enter the war-torn Bosnia. It saved thousands of Bosnian Muslims from starvation. In 1993, it started a program to look after 5,000 Bosnian children, giving them shelter, food, healthcare and education. Its volunteers are deployed in different parts of Bosnia.

Muslim minorities in Asia and Africa have greatly benefited from IIRO's projects such as "Iftar Saem" and sacrificial meat. Its Riyadh chapter alone has distributed 23,000 sacrificial cattle heads, dug over 90 artisan wells, provided health facilities to more than 3.4 million persons in 44 countries. IIRO, which supports 250 orphans worldwide, plans to cover 100,000 Muslim orphans this year under its orphan sponsorship scheme.

Introduced in 1985, IIRO's education program, aims at social, cultural and economic uplift of Muslims. "Education is the only way to get rid of poverty and backwardness of Muslims and help them secure decent jobs," Dr. Qurashi said.

The education program includes scholarships, sponsoring of teachers and supporting educational institutions. At present, it funds more than 350 institutions including 20 colleges and five boarding schools in 38 countries. It sponsors 395 teachers in 148 countries.

ks courage

Minister Benjamin Bokar's leaders have shown their support but have failed to act. Narasimha Rao, the prime minister, has acknowledged the issue on television. Still, the issue is recognised as a major issue in the Pakistan-Indian dialogue earlier this year. The prime minister's sign-off here says

Erbakan forms coalition govt in Turkey

ANKARA -- Turkey got its first Islamist prime minister in its modern secular history on Friday, after We-not be implemented," he said. Erbakan did not specify which provision he had in mind but his Welfare party defence, interior, education ministries, Welfare will attend to finance and justice po-